COLORED MAN KILLED BY A LOCOMOTIVE AT MARTINEZ

Hanibal Dickson, Loading Coal in Sacks in Box Car, Meets With a Tragic Death

NECK WAS BROKEN BY JAR

Train Crew Attempted to Make A "Flying Switch" and Was Unable to Control Train

MARTINEZ, Jan. 27. — Hanibel Dickson, an aged colored man of this city who has resided on southern Castro street for many years, was killed and Elam Smith had a narrow escape from mortal injury Monday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock in an accident in the local yards of the Southern Pacific.

Dickson and Smith were engaged in sacking coal under the contract for the L. M. Lasell Co. in a box car which was standing on the spur track just east of the depot. An extra freight drew into the yards and while placing the cars on the siding where needed, the crew, to save time attempted a "flying switch." The clearance space was not sufficient and the engine carried forward by the heavy weight of 250 tons of steel on flat cars crashed into the box car in which the two mew were working, sending the car tearing through the bulkhead for a distance of nearly 100 feet along the station platform.

Smith who happened to be standing near the door was thrown to the floor and up against the end of the car, but Dickson, standing near one end of the car, was hurled aside and his neck broken. The engine crew seeing the impending crash jumped after the engineer had applied the air brakes. The engine and tender were jammed together and derailed. The accident came without warning to the two men in the car and the victim probably never realized what had happened.

Dickson was rushed in Curry's ambulance to the hospital where every thing possible was done to save his life but he sank slowly, the end coming shortly after 10 o'clock Monday night. He was a native of the south and was nearly 80 years of age. He leaves a widow in this city to whom he was married a few years ago and who only last week returned from a visit with a sick daughter and grand child in Los Angeles. She was at his bedside when the end came.

The extra fraight was in charge of Conductor Lineberger, the engine crew having been recently transferred from the Coast division. A Southern Pacific investigator arrived in Martinez Tuesday morning to examine into the facts in the case and particularly the report that a "flying switch" which is against the rules was being made. It is rumored that a suit for heavy damages will be the result of the fatal accident.

A man who believes that only one certain barber in a town can give him a satisfactory shave thinks too well of himself.

No man in a small town has time to devote to being a Social Lion. Besides, most of the society men are rabbits.

SIEGFRIED BERNDT FOR FIVE YEARS IN CHARGE WINEHAVEN PLANT DEAD

DECEASED WAS VERY POPULAR CLUBMAN IN RICHMOND AND HAD BEEN ASSOCIATED WITH COMPANY TWENTY-ONE YEARS—MET WITH ACCIDENT SATURDAY WHICH MAY HAVE BEEN DIRECT CAUSE OF HIS DEMISE.

Heart hemorrhages caused the death of Superintendent Berndt of the California Wine Association's plant at Winehaven today at Dr. Hunn's sanitarium in San Anselmo, Marin county.

Following an accident at the winery on Saturday afternoon Berndt was granted a leave of absence and on the following Monday morning was removed to Dr. Hunn's sanitarium where his condition gradually grew worse and worse until this morning at 8:00 o'clock when all hope was despaired of saving his life. Berndt was conscious up to the last minute but unable to converse with attending physicians and relatives who were at his bedside.

According to a report received from the company's office in San Francisco Siegfried Berndt entered the employ of the California Wine Association in the year of 1904 and gradually worked up the ladder of service until in 1910 he was given complete charge of the Winehaven plant in this city, considered one of the largest of its kind in the world.

Siegfried Berndt was a native of Germany and is survived by a wife, two sons, Walter and Herman, and a daughter, Erna.

Walter Berndt who several weeks ago accepted a position with the company in New Orleans was immediately notified of his father's death and from last reports was speeding to this city.

Just what the nature of Superintendent Berndt's injuries were that according to the hospital attaches at the sanitarium might have been responsible for his death was unable to be ascertained.

Berndt was a prominent member of Richmond Lodge of Elks, having taken a leading part in many social affairs and also he had officially superintended many large banquets held at Winehaven by clubs and civic organizations about the bay.

No funeral arrangements have as yet been made by the relatives of the deceased but it is presumed that the services will be conducted by Richmond lodge of Elks.

RECOVERY OF MRS. J. H. DALTON IS POSSIBLE

Although conscious, Mrs. J. H. Dalton, whose scalp and right ear was torn from her head at Pinole on Monday in a machinery accident, still continues to hover between life and death according to a report as given out by the Merritt hospital attaches in Oakland today.

Attending physicians are of the opinion that Mrs. Dalton will probably recover from the accident owing to her excellent health and physique.

MOTHER OF HENRY HILL ILL IN THE EAST

"Your mother is seriously ill. Will send urgent call for you if her condition continues to grow worse" was the telegram received at a late hour last evening from Decatour, Illinois by Henry Hill, local billiard and pool proprietor.

Hill intended to leave immediately upon the receipt of the telegram but thought it best to await another statement from the bedside before starting on his journey across the states.

2 DUMP CARS LEAVE TRACK AND SINK IN SLIMY MARSH

Engineer of Tunnel Railway Has Narrow Escape From Death In Accident

DEFECTIVE RAIL IS CAUSE

Locomotive Almost Drawn From Track When Cars Go Into the Soft Mud

A crashing of timbers coupled with the scattering of rocks and debris brought Superintendent E. J. Carillo and a large number of employes at work on the Municipal tunnel bore on the run to their dump car line in the marsh today where they found a stretch of the track torn away and two work cars sinking in the mud.

The accident which nearly resulted in the engineer losing his life was caused by a defective rail in the track which spread, making both dump cars turn turtle into the water of the marsh and nearly pulling the engine from its position.

Sometimes a man may join the back to the farm movement, because he left said farm when he was too young to know much about it.

This is no time to talk about it, but operating a palm leaf fan is about the hardest work when that sort of thing is in season.

HEARING OF CHAS. BROWN BEFORE JUDGE ROTH

Contractor Charles Brown, accused with assault upon William Walker in front of the News office on election night, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace John Roth and a jury of his peers this morning.

The defendant is represented by Attorney H. Wildgrube while the interests of Walker are being looked after by Attorney W. J. Freudenburg.

The taking of testimony was not concluded at the hour of going to press but the indications are that the case will go to the jury before evening.

Dead Pile High in Night Attacks.

PARIS, Jan. 27.—Heaps of dead, the victims of reckless, bloody charges against the trenches of the allies, were the German army's birthday present to the Kaiser today. Inspired by the presence of the Emperor, the German troops hurled themselves against the French and English positions in a series of night attacks along a line from the North Sea to Rheims.

When a man screams that he is dying he probably will recover.

CAR COMPANIES ARE NEEDLESSLY ALARMED

The street car companies are needlessly alarmed, according to the view of most people, over the inroads on their business of the jitney bus. True, a great deal of the traffic is being taken from them for the present by the automobile carriers, but this condition cannot last, for there can be no profit to the jitney drivers in a five-cent fare.

According to experts in the matter of running automobiles it costs for gasoline and wear and tear $7.50 for every hundred miles traversed on the basis of a 30-horsepower machine. Many of these machines travel one hundred and thirty miles each day and the returns from the fares carried are less than that amount. At times, it is true, greater returns are realized, but then they are not taking into account wear and tear and days of poor business.

So that it is manifest that jitney buses are not here to stay—not in the present form, but they may be conducted in some other manner later on which may bring greater returns to their owners. This, too, is the view taken of the jitneys by the Pinole Times. That paper says:

"The advent of the jitney bus may have a decided effect on the earnings of street railways temporarily, but in the long run the public, especially in densely populated communities, will drop the fad and return to the more substantial means of transportation—the street car. When the question of economy in traveling is considered, the jitneys as well as the taxis are dismal failures. A single person may board a street car at the ferry depot in San Francisco and make the round trip to the ocean beach, a distance of over ten miles, for one dime; whereas a jitney has its own zone in which to travel, and when it leaves that zone of a very few blocks there is another fare forthcoming or somebody is out of pocket on the trip. The street railway companies are needlessly quaking at the knees just now. Gasoline will always cost more than electricity and if need be the big railway concerns can reduce the fare in zones where competition is keenest.

Let us hope that out of the chaos of fool legislation which may be enacted by the present legislature that somebody will slip through a joker and repeal some of the bad laws heretofore enacted by previous California bodies of this character. There is but little hope of this Utopean dream being realized, however.

We have tried about every other fool thing imaginable, but the managerial plan of handling state, county and municipal governments. However, we are doubtless coming to it.

Portland, Me., has seen a mysterious airship carrying red and green lights. This sounds like the oldfashioned drug store, in a dry state, with the nice fragrance and the government license.

A WAR OF EXHAUTION

Never was it more apparent since the European war started last July than it is today how long drawn out a struggle it is bound to be. The single "battle of the Aisne" still being fiercely contested, has already lasted as long as many a war in earlier history. The struggle on Germany's eastern frontier is not only equally stubborn, but equally indecisive, although little by little the virtually inexhaustible resources of Russia are beginning to tell, not only in that theatre of the war, but also in the west, where the kaiser's lines must perforce be weakened to meet the mighty enemy on his other flank.

The losses both in men and in money have already reached a total which staggers humanity. The immediately noteworthy fact is that so far as the main issue is involved, those losses have not materially affected the power of resistance of either side in this stupendous conflict. The wearing-down process has not reached the stage where either Germany and Austria-Hungary on the one side or the allies on the other are anywhere near the breaking point. An early peace still remains but a vision and a dream.

Two other noteworthy features stand out as the present stage of the conflict. One is the part that is being played by the artillery, a part which, as one of the German generals pointed out the other day, has already revolutionized military tactics. Another is the part played by comparatively small units, such as the exploits of German submarines, which are apparently to be credited with the sinking of the British battleship Formidable; the air raids over Dunkirk; the dash on the English coast by a German squadron of light cruisers and the return blow of the British against Cuxhaven.

The situation as it stands at present forebodes a continuation of a wearing-down process, in which the British command of the sea must eventually play a most important part, since it is virtually essential to the allies to draw as close a cordon about Germany's ports as the combined British and French fleets can create and maintain. This is above all others a war in which neither side has the advantage either in the valor of the men engaged, the skill of the opposing gnerals or equipment. Until one or the other of these factors weakens on one side or the other of the blood trenches on the east and on the west, the problem of cutting off supplies remains the vital problem.

Since Maxine Elliott, the stage star, has han the gamut of matrimony with all its attendant newspaper advertising, there seemed nothing worth while to strive for in the way of publicity, but now she has hit upon a new and novel method of gaining public attention. She is going to the relief of Belgium on her own privately conducted expedition. Maxine is a mighty pretty woman and knows how to turn her beauty and accomplishments into hard dollars of the realm. It is pretty safe to say that some theatrical syndicate is backing this Belgium expedition.

This Is My 56th Birthday

THE KAISER

William II, Frederick William Victor Albert, king of Prussia and Emperor of Germany, is today the central figure in the world. He is spending his 56th birthday on the battlefield, where contending millions of men are determining his fate. The dominating power of one of the world factions in the great European struggle; the great brain that has woven a magnificent Empire of culture, industry and science; the great traveler and student who knows men and measures; such is this man, the Kaiser, our modern Caesar.

Whether it were ambition that drove him headlong into a career of conquest, like Napoleon; whether it were protection of his dominions and his people from the bottling-up diplomacy of his rivals; or whether he was the victim of diplomatic errors and blunderous advisers—the Emperor William has thrown his all into the struggle which surges on all sides of his stricken country. Whether one blames him and his military policies for the war, or praises his foresight in the preparedness for war—the thought is universal that this great advocate of peace, patron of art and science, builder of industry and prosperity, has lost the friendship of nearly every civilized nation.

No festivities will mark the Kaiser's birthday in Berlin today. By imperial order, the functions of the capital have been dispensed with. In prayer and sadness is the Emperor remembered by his people on this birthday.

It was in Berlin that Emperor William first saw the light of day, January 27, 1859. He succeeded to the throne on the death of his father, the late Emperor Frederick, June 15, 1888. He has visited all parts of Europe, traveled in the Holy land, and visited the Sultan of Morocco.

The failure of his campaign in France, when the rush on Paris was checked, and when the British swept back his move on Calais, is said to have bitterly disappointed Emperor William. His carefully laid strategy failed utterly, as it did on the Russian frontier. His discharge of diplomats indicated to close observers that on he blamed them for failure to correctly appraise the strength and resource of the Allies. He has suffered severely from throat trouble since the war began, but is said to have entirely recovered.

Congratulations To:

Samuel Gormers, America's noted labor leader, 65 years old today.

Hon. John C. Black, war veteran, lawyer and former congressman, 76 years old today.

Ralph Modjeski, noted engineer and bridge builder, 54 years old today.

Rt. Rev. William L. Mills, Episcopal Bishop of Ontario, 69 years old today.

Louis Philippe Hobert, famous Paris sculptor, 65 years old today.

DUCKS FIND GOLD IN MINNESOTA

HUTCHINSON, Minn., Jan. 27.—While dressing a duck for dinner, Albert Rannow of Glencoe, on the Crow River, found gold nuggets in its crop. The nuggets proved to be of pure gold. His ducks have become very valuable to him, and he is now hunting for the source of the gold. The ducks had the run of a pasture crossed by the river, and Rennow is preparing to begin panning operations as soon as the ice loosens in the spring. It was recalled that gold prospectors returning from California some years ago panned the sands of the river bed and found good "color."

COUNTY EXHIBITS ARE ALL PLACED AT "FAIR"

EVERY SECTION OF THE COUNTY WILL BE REPRESENTED AND AN INTERESTING FEATURE OF THE SECTION TO BE THE MASSIVE FACADES AND REST ROOMS FOR THE LADIES TOGETHER WITH SPLENDID VIEW OF COUNTRY.

The Redwood Manufacturing Co. of Pittsburg has 12 men at work at the California building erecting the outer facade for Contra Costa county's section at the P. P. I. Exposition.

This is of the Ionic style of architecture and massive in design. It will be painted old ivory and gold trimmings and when completed it will be the most handsome facade in the California building.

The interior facade work follows the outer facade in design though much smaller in size. This will be lighted where necessary and wherever possible growing plants in pots will be placed.

The processed fruit and vegetables will be distributed around the wainscoting rails to obtain the effect of showing Contra Costa county as a farming, fruit, grape growing as well as manufacturing county.

By reason of location the rest room on the balcony directly behind the main floor exhibit there has been obtained permission to put in two 6-foot windows looking out on the bay toward Richmond and Marin counties. This feature will be extremely restful to tired men and women.

In the ladies' rest room a woman attendant will be on duty at all times and arrangements for light refreshments for local residents and their guests will be made by the commissioner.

It is the desire of the board of supervisors that whenever possible during their seasons fresh fruit and vegetables be distributed to visitors and with this in view the commissioner has made arrangements with growers to obtain their fresh products for distribution. This will be purchased from citizens of the county.

The aim of the commission has been to have all work of installation and in fact everything possible done by Contra Costa county people. Nothing but absolutely necessary work will be done by San Francisco firms.

10 MILLIONS ARE CLEARED BY THE DUTCH SHELL CO.

The secretary of the Shell Transport and Trading company, one of the principal units of the Dutch-Shell combine, has issued the following statement in London:

"The directors have the pleasure to announce to the shareholders that although, as usual, the accounts for the year ended December 31, 1914, cannot be completed before July, 1915, they have every reason to believe that, notwithstanding the war having reduced the trade of the company in some directions, it has not affected it to such an extent as to cause them to anticipate the final earnings for 1914 will be less than for the previous year. The fact that the company's business is spread all over the world, and that a considerable portion is conducted in places outside the war zone, gives a feeling of security for the future. The satisfactory results of the very severe test which the business had to stand, especially during the first months of the war, has proved that it is established on extremely sound lines."

It is said that the net earnings will reach $10,000,000, or at the rate of about 35 per cent.

BOULEVARDS OF ALAMEDA ARE DECORATED

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 27.—Aflame with bright colored blossoms, from scarlet geranium to golden poppy Alameda county's highways and byways this spring will reflect the county's fame is one of the gardening centers of the State, and will give a floral welcome to Exposition visitors that will long be remembered.

All the county towns are engaged in the work of beautifying the boulevards and avenues and even the less traveled roads. Meetings are being held to devise ways and means to this end, improvement clubs have been formed to carry out flower planting schemes, and thousands of residents are working to make their home county one of the most attractive in California to the Eeasterner.

The communities from Oakland to Hayward along the line of the Lincoln Highway, over which thousands of autoists will come to the big fair, are among the most enthusiastic in the beautifying movement. In a number of instances clubs have been specially formed to take up tree and flower planting along the Highway.

BIG DAMAGES FOR A BEATING HE RECEIVED

MARTINEZ, Jan. 27.—An aftermath of a battle raged upon the streets of Pittsburg on August 19th of last year is found in a suit filed with the county clerk today by Agostimo Crosa against Joseph Aiello, in which damages to the tune of $20,388 are sought.

Crosa asserts that he has never been able to work since he got the drubbing. He asserts the blows were delivered by Aiello without provocation and that one rib was broken and another lossened and that his general health was impaired.

He asks for sickness costs of $383; for $10,000 because he never expects to be able to work again and for another $10,000 as exemplary damages.

There is always something ailing about the timid sponge who demands a medical excuse for his booze.

COMIC SOCIAL IS PLANNED BY CHURCH

Arrangements were completed today by the members of the First Presbyterian church for the holding of an entertainment in the reception parlors of the church on Friday evening, January 29th.

The main event of the evening is to be a comedy sketch entitled "The Closing Exercises of the Cabbagehill School." The cast of characters for the playlet are: Abijiah Larken, Jas. Norton; Timothy Bartholomew Brown, A. H. Poage; Cynthia Ann Doolittle, Mrs. C. F. Surles; Zeikel Jebekiah Honeysuckle, Harry Plate; Patience Charity Gray, Mrs. W. Bullock and Solomon Wineacre Pedagogue, Harry Parks.

Refreshments will be served, the funds taken in from which to be used in defraying church expenses.

If men are doing the feeding, the visible supply of salad usually is sufficient to meet the demand.

JESSIE E. COPE FACING A SENSATIONAL HEARING

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 27.—One of the most sensational trials in the annals of the federal court here is expected to begin tomorrow, when Miss Jessie E. Cope is placed on trial on charges of attempting to bribe United States officials. Miss Cope, is the accuser of Colonel Charles Alexander of Providence, R. I., in the white slave indictment brought against that prominent clubman in the federal court here.

It was during the investigation of the complaint of Miss Cope by federal officials last November, that suspicion concerning her good faith in the matter was aroused, according to a statement issued here by the government officials. Miss Cope had many conferences with Assistant United States Attorney Michael Igoe and Hinton G. Clabaugh, division superintendent of the department of justice at Chicago. Finally she is alleged to have "made the bold proposition that the government officials should aid her in securing the sum of $50,000 from Colonel Alexander for her injured innocence."

Miss Cope finally wrote out an agreement in which it was set forth that the officials should aid her in obtaining that sum from the Colonel. According to Mr. Igoe, the agreement included the following: "And in consideration of the federal officials' part she would pay them $25,000, which was to be divided equally between Hinton G. Clabaugh and United States Attorney Cline and myself. Her attorneys were to be paid out of her share."

The plan, according to Mr. Igoe, was for her to give a letter of introduction to L. C. Wheeler, a special agent, to take to her lawyer in Providence. Wheeler was then to warn Colonel Alexander that the government was preparing a white slave case against him and advise him to pay the $50,000 the woman demanded.

The warrant on which Miss Cope was arrested, charges that she "did promise and offer to give money, and did make and tender a contract for the delivery of money to officers of the United States." The warrant further says that her act was "with intent to influence their decision" in a pending case, "and with intent to influence them to commit a fraud" and to "induce them to refrain from doing their lawful duty."

When she was arrested, Miss Cope declared: "I was jobbed. I was beguiled and trapped by government officials. The case against me is all a put-up job. The government officials suggested everything that was done. In fact, it was coercion. The allaged agreement to split $50,000 was made out and I was asked to sign it. I came to the federal officials a lone woman in the search of justice. It was suggested that there might be some way to settle the case. I replied that Col. Alexander was morally indebted to me. Then the whole thing was engineered. I am guiltless of any wrong intention and innocent of the charge against me. When Colonel Alexander is placed on trial I shall tell all—how he made love to me and how he asked me to marry him."

Miss Cope pleaded not guilty when she was arraigned on January 5th. She has been under strict surveillance at a girls' home here.

OCEAN LINER JAMS ON REEF AT HALF MOON BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—Picking her way slowly through the fog and darkness near Half Moon Bay at 6 o'clock this morning, the liner Marama of the Union Steamship line, 22 days out from Sydney, Australia, struck the reeff off Point Mantara and staved in her side.

The passengers were roused from their berths and were terror stricken by the cry of disaster.

They rushed about and dressed and many prepared to don life belts and to get into the lifeboats.

After hanging on the jagged rocks for a few minutes the ship managed to get off and made her way slowly toward the Golden Gate.

Limps Into Port.

Before the Marama reached quarantine she listed so heavily that her passengers again became fearful the ship would sink before it could reach dock. Tugs came alongside and accompanied the Marama to pier 25. The list increased with every foot of progress until it reached eighteen inches in the bow.

Both tanks were filled with water and the armor plates had been sprung.

The fact that the Marama was going dead slow when she struck the reef alone saved her from going to the bottom.

Captain Crawford was on the bridge when the accident happened. He said:

Back Off Rocks.

"I was standing on the bridge about 6:20 o'clock when I saw the light of the lighthouse. I supposed that route was perfectly safe. Suddenly I felt the ship strike a reef and ordered the engines reversed. We backed off, and as we had a double bottom, there was absolutely no danger of sinking."

The Union line officials do not blame Captain Crawford for the accident. They say he is one of their best and most cautious captains.

The Marama carried 136 passengers and a valuable cargo. The captain said most of the passengers were asleep when the ship struck and few knew what had happened until later, when the ship began to list and they were told.

ROW OVER JERSEY COLLEGE

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 27.—When the hearing is resumed today before the State Board of Medical Examiners, on the eligibility of the New Jersey College of Osteopathy to recognition as a reputable school, further clashes are expected, for many of the leading osteopathy practitioners of the state are opposing the institution. Much testimony has already been heard, and the school has come in for some hard knocks, on account of its limited quarters, lack of thorough equipment and neglect of alleged essentials in the courses.

Most people are a little superstitious, even those who know their superstitions are foolishness.

SMALL FORTUNE KICKED AROUND IN HANDBAG

A small black hand satchel containing $200 worth of class pins was kicked around in the hallways of the high school for two days by students at the Richmond High school before it was finally opened and its real value disclosed.

The satchel had been dropped by J. A. Morgan, representing a San Francisco jewelry firm, who had been called to the school to show several new designs in class pins.

Several of the boys at the school seeing the small black satchel and thinking it of no value, used it for a football following which it was thrown into a corner and later found by J. Cummings the janitor.

As the janitor opened the satchel his eyes fairly popped from his head at the sight of the pins, some of which had diamond and pearl settings.

If you really have something to say, people won't kick if you split an infinitive occasionally in saying it.

If a man doesn't do very well, the neighbors have a good deal to say about how extravagant his wife is.

There is some drudgery on the farm, but writing letters is the average man's notion of the hardest work.

While men are cowardly in many ways, most of them will run a great risk in the matter of writing love letters.

ELIZABETH
Height 32 inches, age 21 Years

TINIEST BOOT IN RICHMOND IS LOST

Elizabeth, the Living Doll, is a Real Interesting Little Woman to Talk to

In the soft broken dialect of Hungary, little Elizabeth, who can boast of no other name than "the living doll," was this morning compelled to play the part of a modern Cinderella on account of the mysterious disappearance of one of her tiny boots which became lost some time between her exhibition last night at the "Vim" theater and her awakening, this morning.

Contrary to expectations, Elizabeth is a most interesting little woman to talk to. There is nothing freakish or abnormal about her and although she is but 32 inches in height, she is well developed and proportioned. When interviewed this morning she had just arose from her night's rest and seemed to be as cheerful as a lark. She is 21 years of age and would pass in a crowd anywhere for a child of four or five years. She is a linguist, speaking six different languages fluently and claims to be the only midget in existence whose parents were both midgets. Her father who was only one and one-half inches taller than she is, was known all over Europe as the "Hungarian giant" and her mother was just her height. When she was but a child she was placed in a convent in Budapest and after completing her educational course at that institution she was brought to this country where she has been extensively exhibited. Before coming to the United States she was summoned to Buckingham palace by the queen of England where she was royally entertained. At the State Fair last summer, Governor Hiram Johnson took a strong fancy to her and conveyed her in his automobile to the Governor's mansion where she was a guest of distinction.

HAS LOFTY ASPIRATIONS

Elizabeth, unlike some of her taller sisters, is not ashamed to tell her age and admits that she is looking for a man—"one who is great big and strong and has plenty of money" is the way she expresses it. She declares that she is in love with California and likes it better than any other state she has visited in the Union.

"In fact I think so much of the state that my favorite piece on the xylophone is 'I Love You California,'" she concluded as she prepared to leave for the theater where she entertains the wondering children with her motherly prattle, until many of them cry because they can't take her home with them.

The man who meets you today and doesn't recognize you tomorrow is also among the provocations which induce people to go out and throw bombs at everything.

Dinner should be ready when a man is ready to eat it, according to a hungry man who doesn't expect his women folks to agree with him.

Would your rights be special privileges if someone else had them?

MORGAN ACRES ARE AGAIN CONTESTED IN THE COURTS

MARTINEZ, Jan. 27.—It is a rather unique suit which was started in the Superior court yesterday by Attorney J. L. Geary, Jr., against Melvin E. Lyon, Concord banker and Antonio Correa Azevedo. Geary asks to get the title to one half of the 1400 acres which Louisa Morgan formerly owned in the Morgan Territory.

Some time ago Lyon sued Mrs. Morgan to regain an amount of money loaned her on the property. He was given judgment and took over the 1400 acres. Then Mrs. Morgan hired Geary to take action against Lyons, alleging that he never loaned her as much money as he claimed. Once more she lost.

Now Geary, who it is understood was to get half of the Morgan acres as a retainer fee in case the suit was won, has commenced action to quiet title. The property as described by the surveyors is the north half of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 3 and all of section -0.

SEER PREDICTS END OF WAR SOMETIME IN MARCH

On no less an authority than Psycho, the magician and mind reader, the war in Europe, will come to a close between the 17th and 19th of March. As to the winner in the struggle, Psycho was a little circumspect. To an Englishman who asked for the information he said, "The nation you are thinking of will win" while to a German he said, "The country you are thinking of will lose." This, of course, is very unsatisfactory, since the Englishman might at the time have had visions of Zeppelins so that Germany was on his mind and not England; while the German was possibly thinking of the song, "Has Anybody Here Seen Calais," and might have been thinking of fair Albion. So whatever comes, Psycho is perfectly safe about his prediction of a winner. The rub will come in the assertion that the war will end in March.—Hanford Sentinel.

Our revised notion of the apex of affluence would only include a fund sufficient to dig up every time an opportunity in that line offered.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts is Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish: the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active. —advt.

CINDERELLA POPULAR AT THEATER

Despite rain and storm, Cinderella, has proven one of the most popular attractions which has been staged at the Richmond theatre since the playhouse was opened three years ago. This play follows the old and widely read and accepted version of the maiden with a dainty foot who won position and love through the aid of a kind fairy. The filming has been arranged so that it is a love story as sweet as any ever told and with scenes as beautiful as any ever photographed for the motion picture world. Then there is dainty Mary Pickford, probably the most popular of the idols of the silent drama playing today.

The entire cast is of the very best and the court and other scenes including the great ball are extraordinarily well and luxuriantly staged. In addition to Cinderella there are two good short plays, one a lively Keystone comedy.

A CO-OPERATIVE CHURCH

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27—A church run on a co-operative plan is the plan proposed by the parishioners of the Church of Our Father. The pastor, Rev. John Van Schaick was called to the Belgian relief work. The chaplains of the Senate and the House of Representatives, and other Washington pastors, have offered to supply the pulpit from time to time, and a central committee of the parish is carrying on the church work of the pastor. The result is a successful revival of interest in the parish, and the pastor will find on his return that everything has been cared for.

COMING EVENTS

February 13—Regular monthly dance of Mike and Ike to be held at East Shore Park.

April 1—William Rathbon will lecture in auditorium of Lincoln school in the evening. Auspices of Christian Scientists of Richmond.

SCORES OF DIFFERENT INDUSTRIES ARE CUTTING OPERATING COSTS

CHEAP — RELIABLE — EFFICIENT POWER service from Central Station can do for your business what it is already doing for thousands of others in scores of different lines.

Not only is the actual cost of generating power diminished considerably but you also save money by stopping the WASTE OF POWER which the operation of every private plant entails.

POWER FROM CENTRAL STATION HELPS MULTIPLY ECONOMY

The statistics of our engineers—gathered from hundreds of different actual cases—point conclusively to the immensely increased economy of Central Station Service over private plant operation. A HEAVY BURDEN

A Bad Back Makes Life Miserable For Many Richmond People

A bad back is a heavy burden.

A burden at night when bedtime comes.

Just as bothersome in the morning.

Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it?

Know they are for kidney backache—and for other kidney ills?

If you don't, some Richmond people do.

Read a case of it:

"Dropsy, which was shown by swelling in my limbs, shortness of breath and fluttering of my heart was my most serious ailment," says Mrs. Philomena M. Brier, of 511 Ninth street, Richmond. "I suffered from severe attacks of backache. My head ached often and I had dizzy spells and a tired, worn out feeling. Since I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I have used them whenever these attacks have come on and in a short time they have fixed me up all right."

Price 50¢, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Brier had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. ad.

THE EUROPEAN WAR IN BIBLE PROPHECY.

Undreamed of passions have burst forth, devouring the lands that patient hands have beautified and made fertile, and centuries have stocked with art treasures. To the entire world the war has come as a complete surprise because they have not read our book (600 pages—cloth) telling that just such conditions would exist, only to be followed by the still greater devastation of anarchy. The first edition came from the press in 1897.

Of vaster interest and importance is its promise of better things in store for this earth, when the wrath of nations has run its course. Send thirty-four cents in stamps (with this coupon) to cover postage, to The Temple, No. 26 W. 63rd St., New York City, and receive a copy promptly.

COALINGA PIPE LINE TO BE DONE AUGUST 1ST

COALINGA, Jan. 27.—The pipe line from this city to Martinez, which is 175 miles long, will be finished and ready to run all about August 1. At the completion of the pipe line the Royal-Dutch-Shell will begin activity in the Coalinga field. The company has completed the making and repairing of oil drilling tools and is now ready to place 100 strings at work.

The company is now well equipped with the latest in modern equipment, appliances and tools known to the oil well business. The line has eleven pumping stations between the tank farm and Martinez, built at a cost of about $1,800,000. From each station the pipe is 8-inch, heavy line pipe, for the first five miles out of each station. The next thirteen miles into the next station the pipe is 10-inch. This allows for the cooling of the oil. The system is what is known as the "hot-line-system," having heating drums at each station that starts the oil out at from 130 to 160 Fahrenheit, which in effect is "lubricating the oil." The capacity of the line is fully 30,000 barrels every twenty-four hours under normal conditions, during the hot summer months this will be increased.

At Cantua station, on the line, eighteen miles north of the tank farm, on section 4-20-16, the two large boilers that are to supply the steam for the large line pumps and the oil heaters are in place. The finishing touches and minor details will be finished thas week. At Cheney station, about eighteen miles north from the Cantua station, the two large boilers are in place. The steam fittings and the brick and cement work will be about completed this week. At Panoche station, about eighteen miles north from Cheney station, the steel and material for the two 35,000 barrel oil tanks and one 1,200 barrel water tank are on the ground. The grading for the boilers, boiler house and heating drums is under way. The structural steel for the boiler and engine house is now being delivered. At Cheney station the two large oil tanks and the water tank are about completed. At Cantua station the cottage and office building are nearing completion.

JOE. STANTLEY PLEASES AT ORPHEUM

Now it is Joseph Santley who is proving the big magnet at the Oakland Orpheum. It is hard to resist Santley, because of his grace, his nimble wit and the delightful youthfulness of him. When he was last here as the star in "When Dreams Come True" there was little to the play but Santley. He was the life of every scene in which he appeared. His personality was dominant. It is the same in vaudeville. Two pretty girls dance with him, sing with him and play with him, but really it is all Santley. There is no more graceful dancer on the American stage than this youth and few who can put over a song better than he. It is refreshing to watch the artistic way in which he accomplishes all of his effects.

Santley's engagement closes on Saturday night as does that of all the other features on the bill. Thus it is that there are but three more days of Wellington Cross and Lois Josephine, who recently returned from a four months run at the Empire in London. They are the smartest American duo in vaudeville and it is no wonder the English theatergoers fancied them. They sing some modern ditties, dance the tango and other measures, tell some new stories and move swiftly from one number to another so that although they are nearly half an hour on the stage, the time flies while they are in evidence.

The delightful rural sketch "At Hensfoot Corners" in which Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Barry were seen at the Oakland Orpheum when it first threw open its doors is a stellar feature of this week's program. The Barry's are supreme artists in their field and thousands are enjoying a peek again at the skit that scored so big a hit during the opening week of the Orpheum seven years ago.

It is difficult to put novelty into a cycling stunt but MacRae & Clegg have done it. Miss MacRae is a beautiful girl who cycles beautifully while Clegg is a lively lad with comedy written all over him. Altogether they are irresistible. Leo Zarrell & Company are "entertainers of merit" with some balancing tricks that are decidedly new and that make one gasp at the cleverness with which they are accomplished

Eleanor Haber with her company returned in Ethel Rosen Thaule's sketch "The Office Lady"— a bright bit of playwrighting that is splendidly rendered by Miss Haber and her associates.

Chas. F. Semon, that "Narrow Feller" is the fun making feature of the bill.

Alfred Wollenstein and Grace Adele Freebey provide some beautiful music at the piano and 'cello. All of these artists close their engagement at the Orpheum on Saturday night.

Alice Eis and Bert French will offer a terpsichorean sensation next Sunday as the chief feature of the new bill.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try This! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and brush it through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger. Advt.

The Baldwin

A Convincing Piano at a Convincing Price

THE BALDWIN PIANO IS AN APPEAL TO YOUR INTELLIGENCE AS WELL AS YOUR PURSE.

HOW IT LOOKS is important! That is why specialists, whose life work is designing, draft the patterns from which are selected the new styles.

HOW IT WEARS is more important! For this reason the handsome Mahoganies, Burl Walnut, and Quartered Oak are given extra finishing coats with materials that cost fifty per cent more than those almost universally used.

HOW IT SOUNDS is most important! When you test the tone quality of this instrument, do more than strike powerful chords in the bass—test the highest notes. Where most pianos are thin, the Baldwin has resonance and singing quality. You can not fail to notice it.
